

Parks and Recreation Summer Casual

The Town of Stettler is seeking motivated and energetic team players for summer casual positions in the Parks and Leisure Services Department. This position is based on a 40 hour work week, including some evening and weekend work. Overtime is occasionally required.

Under the direction of the Parks and Leisure Services Foreman, you shall perform a variety of tasks that assist in the maintenance and upkeep of the Town parks and facilities which will include, but not limited to planters, trees, sports fields, green spaces, playgrounds and the Stettler Recreation Center. Applicants will need to have a focus on safety, be physically fit, able to lift up to 50 pounds, be on their feet for long periods of time and hold a valid Class 5 license.

We would like to hear from you if you are qualified and interested in being part of our team. The deadline for applications is Monday, January 27, 2025 at 12:00PM. Please direct applications to dperry@stettler.net or submit a printed copy to the Stettler Recreation Center.
